

Concerning report of Sinclair Corporation forcing stations to carry political attack program:

I thought the FCC assured us it was their intent, even as they allowed ownership of all broadcast networks to fall into the hands of a few, that our news would remain fair and balanced. Instead, we now have the airways, for which Sinclair pays nothing, to be used as a propaganda tool for the views of a single person.